Faleti For Missouri Campaign Hires Conner Kerrigan as Communications and Operations Manager

(ST. LOUIS)...On February 10, the Faleti for Missouri Campaign announced they have hired Conner Kerrigan as their Communications and Operations Manager. He most recently served as Communications Director for Empower Missouri, a statewide advocacy non-profit.

Kerrigan's main responsibilities will be to create and distribute messaging for the campaign. He will handle digital and traditional advertising, as well as social media, email, and press relations. He will also handle many aspects of the campaign's operations, including constituent outreach and speechwriting.

"I am beyond excited to join this campaign and tell Yinka's story to the people of Missouri," said Kerrigan in a statement. "Yinka Faleti is the right leader to be in the Secretary of State's office, and we'll be reaching every county in Missouri to tell his story and inspire Missourians to perform the most important duty of American citizenship - cast their ballot."

"I'm thrilled to have Conner join our team," said Faleti. "Conner brings a depth of experience in leveraging social and traditional media to connect people with message in a way that moves. Having him on our team gives tremendous lift to our efforts to communicate directly with voters and constituencies."

Kerrigan will officially join the campaign on February 24, 2020.
