Faleti For Missouri Campaign Hires Forrest Richardson as Campaign Manager

(ST. LOUIS)...On March 18, the Faleti For Missouri Campaign announced the hire of Forrest Richardson as Campaign Manager. Forrest is a Missouri native.

Richardson is a veteran of campaigns in Missouri, New York, Florida and Connecticut. Raised in Savannah, Missouri, he brings an extensive background in fundraising and management to the campaign. Richardson's most recent work in Missouri was as a member of the finance team for Chris Koster's gubernatorial bid in 2016. He is an avid fan of all things Missouri sports and history.

"I cannot think of a better campaign to be part of during the most important election cycle of our lifetimes," said Richardson. "Yinka Faleti is the right candidate to lead as Secretary of State to promote election security and ensure voter access to the ballot and ballot initiatives at a time when it is so crucial to our democracy."

"I'm beyond thrilled to welcome Forrest to our team and back home to Missouri. His extensive work in not only directing strong fundraising efforts for campaigns but also running campaigns in jurisdictions throughout the country gives our campaign the depth of experience we need to be in a position to win in November."
